

BECOMING DIVINE MERCY PARISH One Parish | Three Churches | Two Schools

AN INVITATION TO SERVE: ONE FAMILY IN MISSION

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

As we read through the survey, alongside every concern we also found something beautiful: a deep love for Christ, faith in His Church, and a willingness to serve. Nearly half of those who responded shared that they are already active in a ministry, group, or organization in their parish. Many others closed their responses with prayers and words of encouragement. That spirit of generosity is one of the greatest gifts our new parish has, and we are deeply grateful for it.

As we prepare to become Divine Mercy Parish, we want to extend an invitation. The ministries that give life to our communities, including liturgical roles, music, the Knights of Columbus, festivals, bereavement, outreach, catechesis, and many others, are not ending. They need you now more than ever. If you already serve, thank you, and please continue sharing your gifts. If you have ever felt called to get involved, there has never been a better time to say yes.

At the deepest level, this new parish is not about buildings, budgets, or boundaries. It is about a family of believers being drawn together for the sake of the Gospel. We take our name from the Divine Mercy of Jesus, the mercy that gathers what is scattered, heals what is wounded, and makes all things new. What lies ahead is not simply a change to manage, but a mission to embrace.

There will be hard questions along the way, and we will face them honestly and together. Three communities are becoming one, not by leaving behind who we are, but by offering our gifts and traditions for something greater.

We ask you for your prayers and your willingness to serve. Offer your talents, your ideas, and your love for this parish, and keep our new parish close to your heart before the Lord. Thank you for your faith, your patience, and your generosity. Together, by God's mercy, we can build a parish that reflects the heart of Christ and hands on a living faith to generations to come.

In Christ,

Rev. Donald Siciliano
Pastor

Rev. Daniel Jasek
Parochial Vicar

Rev. Jonathan Jergens
Parochial Vicar

